

Chiara Pollanch

Job: Conflict Analyst

Background: Political Science

Description: Chiara Pollanch is a Conflict Analyst with a focus on Early Warning in Humanitarian Action and Famine Prevention.

Armed with a degree in Political Science and stationed in the Early Warning and Analysis section of the Emergency Response team, her work is crucial to preempting food crises.

Chiara's role involves not just forecasting conflict and its repercussions on food security but also the complex task of coordinating the distribution of food to affected centers. She faces the significant challenge of quantifying the needs of each center, a task complicated by the dynamic nature of conflict zones where needs can escalate rapidly and unpredictably.

Despite these challenges, Chiara's analytical skills and strategic insights contribute to the effectiveness and efficiency of the World Food Programme's emergency response. Her efforts ensure that aid reaches those who need it most, mitigating the impact of conflicts on communities at risk of hunger.

Relation to topic: Conflict Analyst for Early Warning in Humanitarian Action and Famine Prevention

Group: Early Warning and Analysis, Emergency Response

Pains:

- difficult to coordinate the distribution of food to affected centers
- difficult to quantify the needs of each center